

David Harrington is President and CEO at Prince George's Chamber of Commerce. As a manager with over 20 years of experience, he has lead various projects encompassing communal cooperation and administrative leadership. Harrington has a comprehensive understanding of local, state, and national public policy. While serving on Prince George's County Council, Harrington proposed legislation addressing the necessary improvement of the life quality for citizens in Prince George's County, Maryland.