

Carl Hairston is Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer of City First Bank. Hairston supervises the management and execution of ongoing bank business activities to further advance growth of various banking services. After successfully leading the M&T Bank Lending and Services team in several US regions for 16 years, Hairston began his employment at City First Bank. Hairston has over 25 years of experience, specializing in commercial lending, sales management, and human resource management.